

A retired banker who served in various very senior managerial positions in a large nationalised bank. Schooled in Bangalore at Baldwin Girls' High School, with a high school diploma from Lincoln High School, Lincoln Nebraska USA.

A post graduate rank holder from Bangalore University, she opted for early retirement to pursue her second career and passion, Early Childhood Education.

She is the Founder and Principal of Angela Roye's Child Development Center, a 20 year old ECE center.

She is a sought after writer, speaker, trainer, teacher of her subject and conducts workshops for teachers, parents, and very young children.